

It's EXTREMELY important to me that I be allowed to record all content that flows through my television. I can't be expected to sit down at 8pm on the dot to watch programs. If I want to watch it later then it's my right - whether it be 5 minutes after a program starts or whether it be 2 years later.

My opinions related to the 80's ruling regarding recording programs onto VHS.